Dear Sir or Madam,

Please accept this recommendation on behalf of Michael Baez, a talented entertainer whom I have had the pleasure of knowing for approximately two years.

As part of our constant efforts to insure a high level of service for our wedding couples, we enlist the talents of reliable, engaging musicians like Mike, who are well rounded and flexible. He is professional in every aspect and conscientious with regard to his business practice.

Mike's diverse musical talent was always well received by our clients and they raved about him. In our service industry, it is not easy to please everyone. Where Mike was concerned, the only complaint we received from clients was the fact that his music would eventually have to end to come to an end. They always wanted more.

There are many positive characteristics which Mike possesses, but what stands out the most, is that through the soulfulness and genuine nature of his music, he is really able to connect with people. Many of our couples serviced by Mike found his style to be the "perfect fit" for their wedding.

Please don't hesitate to call if you have any questions.

With warm aloha,

Amy Christiansen
